Exhibit #1

FRANKLIN & MARSHALL

Defiant Trespass Warning

May 28, 2008

Mr. Ronald Harper, Jr.
19 North Mulberry St.
Lancaster, PA 17603

1 Harper Ln
Stevens, PA 17578

Dear Mr. Harper.

On Memorial Day, Monday, May 26th, you entered without invitation, announcement or permission onto College property known as Nevonia, 508 North School Lane, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Fry, and deposited your business card on the President's car. On Tuesday, May 27th, Dulcey Antonucci, director of media relations for the College, informed you that the manner of your entry was not appropriate and was distressing to Mr. and Mrs. Fry because of concerns for the security of their young children. Ms. Antonucci instructed you not to return to Nevonia. In addition, Ms. Antonucci has informed me that in the course of the conversation in which she responded to your press inquiry from earlier in the day, you made comments that can be construed as threatening in nature toward the President. It appears that you disregarded Ms. Antonucci's direction not to enter the Nevonia property and on the morning of Wednesday, May 28th again surreptitiously entered the property and left an additional business card.

Given these disturbing actions and comments on your part, I am writing to inform you that you have no right, either express or implied, to be on any Franklin & Marshall College property, including, without limitation, the College campus in Lancaster PA and Nevonia, 508 North School Lane, Lancaster, PA. at any time whatsoever and for whatever purpose. Should you not adhere to these instructions, the College will have no choice but to pursue all those remedies that are available, including a criminal prosecution for defiant trespass. You are specifically advised, pursuant to 18 Pa. C.S.A. §3503(b) that you are not licensed or privileged to enter or remain at 508 North School Lane, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, or any portion of the College campus, located on the north and south sides of Harrisburg Avenue, and principally between Race and College Avenues, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Sincerely,

Maureen Kelly
Director of Public Safety
